Jonathan J. Svitak, Shannon Law Group, P.C., Woodridge, IL, for Petitioner.

Heather L. Pearlman, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

DECISION¹

On September 26, 2023, Jesus Villahermosa filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa—10 through 34,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a shoulder injury from an influenza vaccine he received on October 13, 2020. ECF No. 1.

On February 14, 2025, Petitioner filed a motion for a decision dismissing the petition. ECF No. 15. For the reasons set forth below, Petitioner’s motion is GRANTED, and this case is DISMISSED.

Relevant Procedural History

Petitioner did not file any supporting documentation with the petition. The PAR Initial Order required Petitioner to file additional statutorily required documents. ECF No. 5. Petitioner did not subsequently file any supporting documentation.

On February 14, 2025, Petitioner filed a motion for a decision dismissing the petition stating that “[a]n investigation of the facts and science supporting his case has demonstrated to petitioner that he will be unable to prove that he is entitled to compensation in the Vaccine Program.” ECF No. 15 at 1. Petitioner understands that dismissal of his petition would result in a judgment against him and end all his rights in the Vaccine Program. Id.

Grounds for Dismissal

To receive compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, a petitioner must prove either 1) that the vaccinee suffered an “on-Table” injury – i.e., an injury falling within the Vaccine Injury Table – corresponding to one of the listed vaccines within the applicable time frames, or 2) that the vaccinee suffered an injury not listed the Table or outside the applicable time frames, an “off-Table” injury, that was actually caused by a listed vaccine. See §§ 300aa—13(a)(1)(A) and 11(c)(1). Petitioner alleged an on-Table claim, i.e., that his shoulder injury was caused by the influenza vaccination.

Petitioner has not submitted any medical records or other supporting documentation to establish any of the requirements of the Vaccine Act. Moreover, Petitioner admitted in his motion that he will not be able to establish entitlement to compensation in the Vaccine Program.

Thus, Petitioner has failed to establish entitlement to compensation in the Vaccine Program. This case is dismissed for insufficient proof. The clerk shall enter judgment accordingly.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
